I'm Preston, owner of PMD Films! Before anything I am a follower of Jesus Christ and am humbled by the experiences I have been blessed with in my life! For many years I have been learning the ways of film. Starting out with broadcasts in both middle school and high school. I ended my education with a Bachelor's in film production from Full Sail University located in Orlando, FL. A couple weeks after graduation in 2020 PMD Films was created. The name PMD derives from a previous business venture I started in the 8th grade and carried all throughout high school, PMD Graphics. It stood for Preston Meihls Designs. Anyone and everyone knew me by the name PMD. Fast forward to 2022 and we now have done business in over 15 states under the PMD name. As for my personal life I live for adrenaline and adventure! I've been racing dirtbike's and quad's since 2014. But my passion was always in bicycles. In 2021 I started racing downhill MTB, my absolute dream sport!

WHO IS PMD FILMS

WHY A WEDDING FILM

PMD Films is a cinema-focused company. We take the aspects of cinema and apply them to our wedding films. What is the difference of a wedding video and a wedding film you might ask? In simple terms, a quality product takes quality equipment. But it goes further than that. A wedding film focuses heavily on shot composition, the overall flow of the story, and requires more time in post-production. Details are essential in the color grading and editing process. As a result it takes more time to complete the wedding film. We absolutely understand a wedding film is not for everyone. Maybe you're having a small barn wedding, or having a small family wedding; a smaller wedding just means more coverage of your loved ones. Why do we budget for a photographer but not a videographer? Why do we budget for both a photographer and a videographer but we budget less for the video side of things? Why is videography so expensive? When a motion picture is in production, each shot is strategically thought out and has been through countless drafts to get on screen. The post-pro team then has to bring that shot to life in the studio. Using high-tech color grading tools, following a script for the story plot, and intense audio mastering. All of these aspects are used in wedding films as well. Excessive? Not for the couples looking for an experience when they play their wedding film back. Photos tell a story in their own right. A motion picture does exactly that, sets your photo in motion. If you want a theatrical experience when cherishing the memories of your big day, lets get to work.

FAQ

My Fiance and I are on a tight budget, what can we do?

Not a problem! We custom tailor packages for any and all couples who so wish! We can tailor to your specific needs and wants and build a package around those needs. This is offered at no extra charge, we at PMD Films are completely transparent in our pricing and package details! We don't want any unanswered questions!

Do you film weddings outside of Indiana?

This is a big ABSOLUTELY! In fact, the majority of our weddings are filmed outside of Indiana. We love traveling across the United States and beyond to capture the love of our amazing couples!

Do you film destination weddings?

YES! While we have yet to do a destination wedding, we are extremely excited for the first opportunity given to us by our couples! Yosemite? NYC? Italy? Turks and Caicos? Let's go!!

Do you offer Instagram & Facebook reels of our wedding film?

Yes!! We can offer social versions of your wedding if requested for an extra editing fee. Depending on your desires, we can choose from highlight cut down versions or even full length versions for socials! Keep in mind we film in a landscape aspect ratio of 16:9, this means when the footage is converted to a vertical portrait 9:16 aspect ratio; certain parts of the image will be cropped out and will not appear in the social edit.

Do you offer RAW footage of our wedding day?

Yes! We give all of our couples the option to keep the RAW footage! We give the option of having audio captured with all video clips so the couple can enjoy hearing what was happening throughout the day! Some interesting things get said at times!! Since our files are generally quite large, we offer either a digital download or mail you a USB with the footage loaded on it!

How will we be able to share our final wedding film?

Great question! We offer uploading your final wedding film to YouTube for you to quickly and easily share the link across all of your social platforms, text, or email it to all of your friends & family! We have never had a couple not love this method, so we have stuck to it!

WHAT'S NEXT

RESEARCH

Research other wedding films to find out what both of you like and dislike. There are so many options within a wedding film such as writing personal letters, audio of vows, first looks, and so much more. If you already have a social status and want to match your "look" we can tailor the best we know how to that look throughout your wedding film. Take into consideration your wedding venue and decorations, for example, trying to film a wedding as "industrial modern" won't work at a wedding barn venue.

DECISION

Start deciding what you want your film to look like. Specific poses or creative ideas you may have. We as a production crew always try our best to find new trendy poses and so fourth but that doesn't mean we know everything! Decide on the amount of coverage you want captured within your wedding day. Also consider your budget for a videographer, we work very hard to provide top tier wedding films which doesn't always come super cheap. Your videographer will cost more than your photographer most of the time, this is because video requires much more intense detail both throughout the wedding day and in post-production.

MOVE FORWARD

Once you have gathered the information you feel comfortable with lets chat! We can setup a phone call or facetime and go over your details. We will talk about both of your wants and desires and talk about pricing / options. We cannot wait to work with you and make your dream wedding film a reality.
